MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

FROM:

C ]
PPS/SIB

SUBJECT:

Subscription Lists for QRPLUMB English Language Publications

1. This is to make a record of the conversation I held on 19 December 1989, with C ], PCS/PGG/CB, regarding subscriptions by U.S. persons to English language publications produced by the PPS project QRPLUMB, formerly a proprietary and now a controlled subsidy.

2. Background: During FY-84, QRPLUMB began publishing an English language monthly newsletter, "Soviet Nationalities Survey". It was intended for third world audiences, with part of the press run being distributed in Western Europe and infiltrated into the USSR and Eastern Europe. In 1986, the English language quarterly, "Soviet Ukrainian Affairs", was started. It dealt with Soviet Ukrainian topics and was aimed at East and West European audiences. In recent years, with the growing world interest in the nationalities issues in the Soviet Union, the interest in these publications also increased. A number of U. S. persons, including some members of the media, requested subscriptions. For operational cover reasons, these requests could not be denied and were treated as "unavoidable spillover". Recent examination of the subscription list indicated that the number of U.S. subscribers has reached the level beyond what could simply be considered "spillover". This was discussed with the QRPLUMB principal agents and a decision was made to cease publication of the "Soviet Nationalities Survey" and "Soviet Ukrainian Affairs" by March 1990 at the latest.

3. Per agreement with C ] during the 19 December conversation, the current subscription list for the "Soviet Nationalities Survey" and "Soviet Ukrainian Affairs" will be held in the QRPLUMB file in PPS.

MEMORANDUM FOR: [ C/PCS/PGG/CB ]

FROM: [ C/PPS/SIB ]

SUBJECT: Ukrainian Press Agency

1. Referring to the telephone conversation between you and an officer of this branch, Cecilia Larkin, on 19 December 1989, following is the background on the Ukrainian Press Agency in London and its connection to the QRPLUMB project.

2. For a number of years now, the QRPLUMB organization has employed Taras Kuzio in London, primarily as a distributor and organizer of infiltration of the QRPLUMB product into the USSR. Kuzio heads the Society for Soviet Nationalities Studies which publishes "Soviet Nationalities Survey" and "Soviet Ukrainian Affairs". While Kuzio's salary, office rent and expenses are provided by the QRPLUMB project, he is not witting of the Agency's connection with QRPLUMB. [ C ] has been briefed at the highest level on our indirect involvement with Kuzio.

3. In 1986, Kuzio began compiling and translating information on current event in Ukraine and providing it to the media in the form of the Ukrainian Press Agency (UPA) releases. These releases were offered to the public by subscription and the cost of their production is being covered by the subscription fees. Portion of the press run is distributed free of charge in Eastern Europe and the USSR. Although majority of the subscribers are in Western Europe, the current subscription list contains twenty-eight ? 36/37? addressees who are either located in the U.S. or are members of U.S. media assigned in Western or Eastern Europe. This constitutes less than six percent of the 164 listed subscribers, not counting the free copies distributed from the 200 copy press run.

4. It should be noted that the QRPLUMB organization has no editorial input into the UPA releases. In fact, for the most part, they consist of translations of information provided directly from inside Ukraine on events occurring there.

5. While we recognize that even the indirect involvement of QRPLUMB in the UPA may be interpreted as providing information to U.S. public by our assets, it would be extremely difficult to deny subscriptions requested by U.S. persons for two compelling operational reasons. First, because of Kuzio's unwitting status, he cannot be instructed to refuse U.S. subscriptions without a reason. Second, as the product is available to the public, there is no plausible reason to deny subscription to anyone who requests it.

6. Copy of the current subscription list to the UPA press releases is attached for your review.
